Dear Mr Jones

I am a pupil at All Saints primary school in Nuneaton. This half term we have been learning about a very important man called Walter Tull. Walter Tull was a brave footballer ^{who} ~~that~~ was the first ^{black} British Army officer. They had to break a Military law for him to join the Army. He faced alot of racism for this when he enjoyed his career. He was proud of his achievements but unfortunately other people are not, this is why he should be awarded the Military Cross. He was in the war for ~~11~~ ^{seven} years just to be killed ^{four} weeks before the war ended.

Your sincerely,

Harrie
