

What is Geography?

Geography is about understanding the world around us and being curious about places and the relationships between people and their environments.

As Geographers:

- We ask and answer thoughtful questions*
- We can gather information using different techniques*
- We can make observations*
- We can compare locations*
- We can solve problems*
- We can investigate*
- We can carry out research*